Sightless But Serves Country

But She "Sees" For Him

"Eyes are not so terribly valuable," says United States Senator Thomas H. Schell of Minnesota. "What you want in Congress is a soul, a mind, an understanding. The eyes have been successfully covered in the case of Senator Schell. He has a record of 10 years' service in the Senate before the eyes were covered. He is 'sightless' years his wife has been his secretary, partner and playmate."

Ford Supplies Dance Hall for "Mellie"; Dynamite Chewer Fined

THE CHARMING LADY is Kathryn Kay, shown wearing the very latest in feminine "galluses." Hitherto regarded as the sole property of man, the suspender has become very popular in fashion centres among those who may wish to wear them.

ONCE CHARITABLE, HE NOW SEEKS CHARITY—Fancy Tom Rogan, 98-year-old, Sioux Indian fighter, and a familiar figure around Wallstreet, who has applied for charity in New York.

RIGHT—Standing six feet five inches in his bare feet, Frank Clarke, aged 16, of the Irish Guards, Aldershot, is claimed to be by many inches the tallest drummer in the British Army. With him is shown the bugler.

LEFT—Seiji Tachibana, editor and publisher of Chicago's first Japanese daily newspaper, "Dai Nippon," running off his day's circulation by mimeograph, the stencils for which he himself cuts by hand. It is a fourpage sheet.

FLAYS POLICY—Maj. Gen. Sir Frederick Sykes, former chief of the English air staff, who, in an attack on the air ministry, opposes a return to the early wartime system of military and naval air services subordinate to their respective branches.

EXTEND TO THEIR MANY CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS
THEIR HEARTIEST THANKS

— and —

GREETINGS

W. H. HALIBURTON

THE extensive growth of our business in the short space of five months—for it was only on July 1st, of this year that we assumed the ownership management of this business—calls for our most hearty thanks to the people of Edmonton who have given us such splendid and generous patronage. . . . Five months ago we took over the business from Mr. Thos. Robinson, who had been established in the musical trade for seven years. With the assumption of management we took over the agency for the Steinway, Nordheimer, Karn and Gourlay Pianos, as well as the Brunswick and Imperial Phonographs. . . . These high-class lines had already attracted a superior patronage and before long we deemed it wise to add other lines which appealed to a rapidly growing clientele who demanded and appreciated the best. The artistic models and the delightful tone of the McLagan Phonograph appealed to us, and our judgment met with the instant appreciation of our customers. We stocked a complete line of these beautiful instruments, in the architecture of the various "Periods" and in a wide range of hardwoods. . . . Next we added a complete line of stringed instruments from the very best makers, and then the various small orchestral and band instruments—brass as well as woodwind—and soon found that there was an extensive demand from our customers for this merchandise. . . . It was not long before we were obliged to enlarge the main part of our store to open a warehouse and showrooms to take care of this large extra stock. . . . Then came Radio and our selection fell upon the famous "Fada" line, which has won such consistent praise from radio enthusiasts all over the continent. . . . We have found, even in the few short months of our business career that we have made no mistake in maintaining a consistent policy of selecting only the best in each line, and giving conscientious service at all times. This service includes a guarantee that every purchase is in perfect condition, and that any defects, should they develop in the proper use of the instruments will be made good at any time. . . . Our purpose is to build up a business upon the solid principle of satisfaction. . . . It is a matter of extreme gratification to us to find that our policy is meeting with enthusiastic appreciation among a large and rapidly growing circle of those who know and demand the best. Beyond this our business principles include the matter of exclusiveness. We cater to the very best people in Edmonton, and it is our lastness and ambition to satisfy the discriminating. This does not mean that our prices are high for it will be found that these are most moderate in every instance. Comparison will prove this. Both the partners are well known in Edmonton. Our Mr. Ernest Henderson is a shareholder and was formerly actively associated with the Sterling Collieries. He is now devoting his entire time and attention to this business. Mr. W. H. Haliburton has had a life-long experience in the musical trade. He was for seven years in the Karn factory as tuner and later as salesman and was for seven years with the Mason Risch Piano Company. . . . At this period, our first Christmas in business, we wish to thank you and to bespeak for our service your extended patronage.

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING OF "The Grotto"

TOMORROW night (Thursday) at 6 o'clock, the new "Grotto" addition to the Shasta Cafe will be formally opened to the public, giving this popular Cafe a total seating capacity of two hundred. Workmen and artisans have for weeks been building, decorating and furnishing to produce a splendid result which the Public will be asked to view tomorrow night. These additions and improvements place the Shasta in the enviable position of the finest restaurant in Western Canada.

The appointments of the new "Grotto" are most modern, complete, artistic and comfortable. Here are up-to-date booths in mahogany, most expensive floor coverings, finest equipment in cutlery, table linen, electric fittings and utensils. The woodwork of the booths in the present Shasta Cafe—that is the ground floor section, is of quarter-cut oak, and to conform to the new and handsome "Grotto" has been freshly decorated and painted.

The lights and fittings are rich and artistic in design, and the whole effect of the place is sparkling and exhilarating. Shining urns, rich cutlery, snowy napery, all these things contribute to the cheerful atmosphere of the place.

Nor has the subject of ventilation been forgotten. A large Sir-rocco fan and an adequate system of air current will keep the place airy and the temperature equable. An efficient staff of waiters and additions to the culinary department will maintain that high standard of cuisine and service that has made the Shasta Cafe famous throughout the West.

Entertainment will be provided by a Radio receiving set of the very highest type which will bring Market quotations, speeches, concerts and the ever popular Jazz Music to add to the gaiety of the guests. The very highest credit is due to the artisans who have fitted up and decorated the "Grotto," which is a distinct acquisition to the City's places of entertainment.

The Shasta Restaurant was purchased by Mr. A. Martin in 1919, who had been in the restaurant business in Edmonton for some three or four years. By dint of courtesy and service he has won for himself a high place in Canada among those who cater to the public palate and look after the requirements of the inner man.
